

21st JUDICIAL CIRCUIT COURT,
ELLISVILLE MUNICIPAL DIVISION

Coronavirus (Covid-19)

If you have the symptoms of an acute respiratory illness, and you are needing to pay a citation, have a Court hearing, you are a party or witness in a hearing, or have any business at the courthouse, please read this notice.

The 21st Judicial Circuit Court Ellisville Municipal Division is taking precautions to maintain a safe and healthy court environment for all visitors and staff.

The Centers for Disease Control and Prevention recommends that individuals who have symptoms of acute respiratory illness which includes congestion, runny nose, cough, sore throat, fever, body aches, or fatigue stay home until they recover and are free of fever (100.4° F [37.8° C]) or greater using an oral thermometer), signs of a fever, and any other symptoms for at least 24 hours, without the use of fever-reducing or other symptom-altering medicines (e.g. cough suppressants).

- If you have a pending court hearing, and you have symptoms of acute respiratory illness, or if you develop symptoms of such an illness over the next few weeks (March 13, 2020 - April 13, 2020) and you have a pending court hearing during that time span, please contact your lawyer and inform your lawyer of your illness so that a continuance can be sought. If you do not have an attorney and you have symptoms of acute respiratory illness, please call 636-227-3729 Monday through Friday, 8:30AM to 4:30PM, and request to speak to someone associated with your case.
- If you are a witness in a hearing, and you have symptoms of acute respiratory illness, please contact the attorney or party that subpoenaed you and inform them of your illness so that other arrangements can be made to accommodate you and inform them of your illness so that other arrangements can be made to accommodate you.